

please don't take away the possibility to record when i'm not able to watch.... the movie industry has already made it hard (and sometimes illegal) to have me watch my DVD movies if they were not bought here... something that was never done to music. will music be next too?? please let us continue to enjoy without all these hassles.